

What have we been doing in Nursery this week?

May 4th

As well as lots of singing, chatting, exploring and stories, we have been role playing Jack and the Beanstalk with puppets, listening to the violin, playing percussion, checking on our bean's progress (it has a little root!) painting crowns, making dens and enjoying exploring with water.... We look forward to welcoming Adeife, Hazel and Amayah to our Nursery class next week!